Fall Meeting

Sunday, November 23

Our Fall meeting will be held on Sunday, November 23, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Note this is an hour later than usual. We will meet at Mother Angeline McCrory Manor, 5199 East Broad St., Columbus. Sister Pauline Ross, O. Carm., will present the “History of the Carmelite Sisters of the Aged and Infirm in Columbus: 1948-2008.”

Directions: take East Broad St. to Noe-Bixby Rd., then south on Noe-Bixby to the Manor entrance, which is first drive to the right. Follow the driveway to its end. Park and enter at the main entrance. Sign in guest register. You will be directed to the Activity Room, where we will meet.

We are delighted to have this presentation for our members and guests, the story of the devoted work of the Sisters for the aged at St. Raphael and St. Rita homes and the Mother Angela McCrory Manor.

At this meeting we will name a nominating committee for officers to be elected at the Winter meeting.

Member Publication

Society Vice Chairman and Editor Don Schlegel has had a book published in Ireland by Cumann Seanchais Chlochair, the Clogher Historical Society. Abstracts of Chancery Inquisitions of the Seventeenth Century for Counties Fermanagh and Monaghan contains what are similar to estate records, listing deceased persons, the lands they held, and their heirs, as well as lands forfeited to the king. He translated it from Latin. It should be useful to genealogists, those interested in the history of Irish lands and their names, and others.
